The Concrete
Producer

July 2007

Congratulations!

Your project has been honored as one of CONCRETE CONSTRUCTION's 2008 GreenSite Projects of the Year effort to acknowledge the contractor's role in creating a sustainable concrete industry. In partnership with our sister publication, THE CONCRETE PRODUCER, the winning projects best exemplify sustainability in regards to a concrete-related construction project.

A total of 17 entries were submitted for the GreenSite Project of the Year, covering a variety of construction projects. Your winning project will be profiled in the July issue of CONCRETE CONSTRUCTION, as well as featured on our Web site, www.concreteconstruction.net.

If you have any questions, please give me a call at 773.824.2512.

Best regards,
